

ANNEX 2 - Designing my PEP

The PEP is based on precise assessment that identifies growing and educational needs and strengths, in relation to skills, knowledge, subject areas and experiences; it is important that critical learning gaps are identified so that these can be tackled in due time.

MY PEP. Part I Background information
My name and surname	I.T.A. ¹
My age	16
My Leaving Care Professional's name	A.C.
My country of origin	Somalia
My country of residence	Cyprus
My previous level of education and where	7 th Grade in Somalia
My strengths	I master 3 languages, English, Somali and French
My weakness and challenges	No formal education in the last 3 years
My educational goal is	Have a College degree in....
My career plans are	e.g. Professional chef

¹ A fictive example inspired by real life experiences.

What local offers and opportunities I have in the country I reside?

Opportunities offered in the host country (Formal & Non-Formal Education): Public/Private Education, workshops, vocational trainings, internships, etc. (enlist all available opportunities here)

Formal Education

Non-formal educational opportunities

Extracurricular activities

What do I need to do to achieve my educational goals?
Education (select the best choice at the time of designing the PEP)	Formal Education	Non-formal educational opportunities	Extracurricular activities
My obstacles in reaching my educational goals	e.g. language barriers	Limited social network	Cultural barriers

My PEP. Part II

The PEP is a flexible and living records of the educational path for each child. The bellow template can be different for each child depending on the info inserted under My past experiences, My local educational opportunities and What do I need to do to achieve my goal that will define the personalised educational path.

